(FROM THE LONDON CHRONICLE.)

The Hiſtory of John Bull's Children.

SIR Humphry Poleſworth, who formerly gave the World a true and faithful Account of John Bull, and of his Mother, and his Siſter, and Wives, and his Servants, now write the Hiſtory of his Children, and how they were got, and how they were educated, and what befel them. Courteous Reader, if thou haſt any Curioſity to know theſe Things, read the following Chapters and learn.

Chap. I. Of Seven natural Children, which John Bull had in his younger Days by Doll Secretary, his Mother's Maid; namely, three Boys, John, jun. or Maſter Jacky, Yorky, and Jerry; four Girls, Penelope, Mary, Virgey, and Caroline: How the old Lady would ſuffer no Baſtards in her Family; and how the poor Infants were turned adrift on the Fiſh Ponds as ſoon as born; how they landed on the Weſtern Shore, and were there nurſed by a wild Bear all under the green Wood Tree.

Chap. II. How John diſowned them, and left them to get over the Childrens Diſorders the beſt Way they could, without paying a Farthing for Nurſes, or Apothecary's Bills; and how, as ſoon as they had cut their Eye Teeth, and were able to walk alone, John claimed them for his own.

Chap. III. How Maſter Jacky turned Fiſherman and Ship-Carpenter; Yorky and Jerry drove a great Trade; Miſs Penny dealt in Flour, called the Maid of the Mill, and never curteſy'd to any Body: How Mary and Virgey ſet up a Snuff-Shop, and Caroline turned Dry-ſalter, and ſold Indigo; how they all flouriſh'd exceedingly, and laid out every Penny they earned in their Father's Warehouſe.

Chap. IV. Of two Children more, which John had afterwards in lawful Wedlock, viz. a Boy which he called Georgey, after his great Patron, and a Girl, which he called Peg, after his Siſter Margaret; how he crammed them with Sugar-Plumbs, and how they remained ſickly, ricketty Brats at this Day.

Chap. V. How young Maſter Baboon, old Lewis's only Son, fell in Love with Miſs Virgey; and how he came behind with Intent to raviſh her; how ſhe ſquealed and alarmed her Dad.

Chap. VI. How John called for his Stick and his Barge, and croſſed the Pond to ſave his Daughter's Virtue; how young Lewis gave him a confounded Rap on his Fingers, and drove him back, and then at his Daughter again.

Chap. VII. How her Brother Jack came to her Aſſiſtance, and threw young Lewis on his Back; how old Lewis Baboon flew to help his Son, and carried Lord Strutt along with him; how John Bull returned and muſtered all his Children at his Back, and to it they went.

Chap. VIII. How they had a long Tuſtle; how John's Children ſaved their old Dad from a broken Head, and helped to ſeize young Lewis and tie him; how the old Folks agreed to leave young Lewis in Cuſtody, and drink Friends themſelves; and how John made his Children pay a Share of the Reckoning without giving them any of the Drink.

Chap. IX. How John in his Cups bragged of his Exploits, and ſaid he had done all himſelf, and his Children nothing; how he made Choice of fair George, the Gentle Shepherd, for his Houſe Steward, becauſe he could tell, without the Book, that two and three made Five, and the Multiplication Table by Heart.

Chap. X. The whole Stewardſhip of fair George; how he neglected to proteſt Lewis Baboon's Note of Hand on the Day of Payment, releaſed Lord Strutt from a Mortgage on his Manor of Eaſtland; how he took an Averſion to Cyder, and would allow none to be drank in his Family; how he rummaged every Man's Cheſt for Pen, Ink, and Paper, and obliged thoſe he catched Writing to ſtand a-top of the Table, with a Wooden Neckcloth under their Chin, while he counted ſixty times ſixty; and how this is called the Gentle Shepherd's Benefit of Clergy unto this Day.

Chap. XI. How Fair George took an antipathy to John's Children, becauſe he ſaid they put nothing into the Box at Chriſtmas; and when they came to pay their Shop Accounts, they brought in their Money at the back Door; how he adviſed John to brand them on the far Buttock, as they do Stray Cattle, that he might know them to be his own.

Chap. XII. How John's Children rode reſtiff, and ſwore they would not have the broad R ſtampt on their B-ck-ſides; how John, in heating the Irons, burnt his own Fingers moſt d-----ly; how all his Neighbours laughed, and fair George could not find him a Plaiſter.

Chap. XIII. How John, in a Paſſion, kick'd Fair George down Stairs, and rung up other Servants; how they adviſed him to conſult his Wife; and how Mrs. Bull bid him let his Children alone; that though born in Sin, they were his own Fleſh and Blood, and needed no Stamp to ſhew it; how John took her Advice, and let the Irons cool again; and how ſome ſuſpected if John's Fingers had not ſmarted, he would not have complied ſo ſoon.

Chap. XIV. A Dialogue on Education, between Fair George and Lame Will; how Will proved it to be both cruel and impolitic to pinch Children till they Cry, and then pinch them for Crying; and how George anſwered and ſaid nothing.

Chap. XV. How John, by means of his new Servants, became beloved of his Children, and reſpected by his Neighbours; how he obliged Lewis Baboon to beat down the Wall of Eccleſdown Caſtle, becauſe it overlooked his Pond, and harboured Sea-Gulls to Gobble up his Fiſh; how he made him alſo pay up his Note of Hand; and how Lord Strutt——

But, Mr. Printer, I have given you enough to judge of the general Plan of this Hiſtory. Pray let me have your Opinion as to the Publication. My Notion at preſent is, to ſend it abroad in Six-penny Numbers, and engage the Country Carriers to take it down; it may paſs for Political an Hundred Miles from Town.

From a late London Paper.

ALL the Articles of News lately publiſhed, that ſeem improbable, are not mere Inventions. Some of them I can aſſure you on the Faith of a Traveller, are ſerious Truths. And here give me Leave to inſtance the various numberleſs Accounts the News-writers have given us (with ſo much honeſt Zeal for the Welfare of poor Old-England!) of the eſtabliſhing Manufactures in the Colonies to the Prejudice of thoſe of this Kingdom. It is objected by ſuperficial Readers, who yet pretend to ſome Knowledge of thoſe Countries, that ſuch Eſtabliſhments are not only improbable but impoſſible; for that their Sheep have but little Wool, not in the Whole ſufficient for a Pair of Stockings a Year to each Inhabitant; and that, from the univerſal Dearneſs of Labour among them, the working of Iron and other Materials, except in ſome few coarſe Inſtances, is impracticable to any Advantage. Dear Sir, do not let us ſuffer ourſelves to be amuſed with ſuch groundleſs Objections. The very TAILS of the American Sheep are ſo laden with Wool, that each has a Cart or Waggon on four little Wheels to ſupport and keep it from trailing on the Ground. Would they Caulk their Ships? Would they fill their Beds? Would they even Litter their Horſes with Wool, if it was not both plenty and cheap? And what ſignifies Dearneſs of Labour, where an Engliſh Shilling paſſes for Five-and-twenty? Their engaging Three Hundred Silk Throwſters here in one Week for New-York was treated as a Fable, becauſe, forſooth, they have no Silk there to throw. Thoſe who made this Objection perhaps did not know, that at the ſame Time the Agents from the King of Spain were at Quebec contracting for 1000 Pieces of Cannon to be made there for the Fortifications of Mexico, with 25,000 Axes for their induſtrious Logwood Cutters; and at New-York engaging an annual Supply of warm Floor-Carpets for their Weſt-India Houſes; other Agents from the Emperor of China were at Boſton in New-England treating about the Exchange of raw Silk for Wool, to be carried on in Chineſe Jonks thro' the Straits of Magellan. And yet all this is as certainly true as the Account, ſaid to be from Quebec, in the Papers of laſt Week, that the Inhabitants of Canada are making Preparations for a Cod and Whale Fiſhery this Summer in the Upper Lakes. Ignorant People may object that the Upper Lakes are freſh, and that Cod and Whale are Salt-Water Fiſh: But let them know, Sir, that Cod, like other Fiſh, when attacked by their Enemies, fly into any Water they think they can be ſafeſt; that Whales, when they have a Mind to eat Cod, purſue them wherever they fly; and that the grand Leap of the Whale in that Chace up the Falls of Niagara is eſteemed by all who have ſeen it, as one of the fineſt Spectacles in Nature!—Really, Sir, the World is grown too incredulous: Pendulum-like, it is ever ſwinging from one Extream to another. Formerly every Thing printed was believed, becauſe it was in Print: Now Things ſeem to be diſbelieved, for juſt the very ſame Reaſon. Wiſe Men wonder at the preſent Growth of Infidelity! They ſhould have conſidered, when they taught People to doubt the Authority of News-Papers, and the Truth of Predictions in Almanacks, that the next Step might be a Diſbelief in the well-vouch'd Accounts of Ghoſts and Witches, and doubts even of the Truth of the A——n Creed.

Your humble Servant,

A TRAVELLER.

MADRID, April 22.

THE King has ſent Orders to the Marquis d'Enſenada to retire from Court. Yeſterday two Regiments of Horſe arrived here with 8 Pieces of Cannon, and near 10,000 Troops are on Guard round this Capital; notwithſtanding which, Libels of a moſt atrocious Nature are daily diſperſed and poſted up. Every Corner reſounds with Threats of Riots and Inſurrections. The Populace have even attempted to ſet Fire to the Caſtle of the Duke of Acros, in the Neighbourhood of Alicant, and to raiſe a Diſturbance in the Palace of St. Ildefonſo. Two Officers, on their Return from Carthagena, whither they had been to eſcort the Marquis de Squilace, found the People every where in Commotion, and crying out, Long live the King! Deſtruction to Squilace.

We learn from Barcelona that Papers had been poſted up there, ſetting forth that a Revolt would take Place the 20th Inſtant, at 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon, unleſs the Price of certain Commodities were lowered. Tho' the Marquis de la Mina, Captain General of the King's Armies, and of the Principality of Catalonia, was perſuaded that this Menace had no real Foundation, he thought proper to take every neceſſary Step to prevent this pretended Sedition, and puniſh the Authors of it.

Civita Vecchia, April 30. According to ſome Letters from Corſica, an Exchange of Priſoners of War have been made there; but Paoli and his Senate have expreſſed ſo much Averſion to the Genoeſe, and even to the French, who lately hanged a Taylor and a Shoemaker at Ajaccio, that Peace ſeems to be baniſhed from that unfortunate Iſland. The Crime laid to the Charge of the poor Taylor and Shoemaker was that they publicly cried out in the Midſt of its Garriſon, "Long live our Country, and Paoli, its Protector."

Genoa, May 3. According to our laſt Advices from Spain, the Spirit of Mutiny circulates yet in the ſeveral Towns of that Kingdom; and it was believed this was the Reaſon that the Queen's Regiment, which was to embark at Cadiz for America, had received Counter-Orders.

A Veſſel is arrived here from Baſtia, the Commander of which reports, that a French Tartane had brought from Toulon an Hundred Cannoneers and Matroſſes, whom the Marquis de Marbeuf had diſtributed into the ſeveral Places held by the French in Corſica. From this Circumſtance it is apprehended that much Blood will be ſhed ſoon in that Iſle.

LONDON, May 17.

Yesterday the Right Hon. Earl of Egmont kissed his Majesty's Hand on being appointed Secretary of State, in the Room of his Grace the Duke of Grafton, who has resigned.

Extract of a Letter from Banda, the Capital of the Molacca Islands, June 10, 1765, being a further Account of the Eruption of the Volcanos in the Island.

"The Quantity of Cinders cast up from the Mountain, with the burning Lava, which ran down its Sides to the Distance of upwards of Two Thirds of it, destroying all the Houses and Trees in its Passage, which fell with a horrible Noise, filled every Soul with Terror on the 29th. To these were added, the perpetual Rumblings heard in the Body of the Mountain, and the sulphurous Vapours issuing from all Parts, which rendered the Air quite insupportable. Report magnifying these Objects, added to our Consternation. Tho' it had not appeared that any Stones had been found above half way down the Mountain, yet it was pretended that several had been picked up in different Parts of the Isle. Indeed a Dutch Soldier, on the 1st presented the Governor with a Piece of very hot Matter, which he had found near the Fort. On examining this Piece, it was found to consist of pure Sulphur. The Stench of the Sulphur had been frequently very strong in the Island, but never continued long. The Fire also of the lower Volcano lasted only 24 Hours, the Collection of Stones thrown out, having extinguished it, and converted it into a thick Smoak, till the 3d of this Month. But this Circumstance occasioned the greater Alarms, because the Vapours thickened at the two Upper Volcanos, and the Explosion of burning Manner became much more frequent and much more terrible than ever. The Ground to the extent of the Valley was inaccessible on Account of the Heat. The Trees, late so beautiful, were partly burnt and partly overturned, for above half way down the Mountain; and the Stones which fell from the Top being stopped by the Trees that had been overturned, set them on Fire, which caused a very terrible Conflagration. It was in this Situation which threatened further Calamities, that the Government ordered the Inhabitants to provide themselves with Water. The Officers appointed to extinguish such Fires as might happen, received, in particular, the most precise Orders on that Head. These made the deeper Impression on People's Minds, as a Quantity of burning Matter had fallen in the Negory, and several Pieces of Sulphur, yet quite hot, had been picked up, on the 3d, near the Clove Magazine.

"The 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th, no favourable Change was seen. On the contrary every Body thought they perceived the Volcanos grow wider, the Flames thicken, and the Eruption of burning Matter increase.

"On the 15th nothing yet to quiet us; the subterraneous Noise with the Quantity of burning Matter, thickness of the Flames, violence of the Reports, &c. all increased.

"On the 4th of the present Month, every Thing in the same melancholy Situation. The subterraneous Noise still equally terrible, and the fiery Matter issuing from the Mouth of the Volcanos in the same Quantity, and with the same Velocity.

"This sorrowful Event depresses us the more, as we were scarce recovered from the Consternation, which the Shock of an Earthquake on the 12th of September, 1763, had spread over the Isle."

NOTICE is hereby given to the preceding Subscribers for Lots of Ground, in a Plan laid out for a Town on FELL's POINT, Patapsco River, to pay their several Arrearages, or they will be proceeded against in the Courts of Justice (tho' much against my Inclination) but, as several Persons have subscribed and entered into Articles for Lots on said Point (thereby depriving others) the Rents thereon lie unpaid, and other Matters not comply'd with, I must take that Method to put such in Mind of what is Justice relating to such Engagements, unless timely prevented.

And whereas some Persons, from penurious Views, have been infidiously industrious in spreading a Report, that the Title to the Lots of Ground on said Point (in Edward Fell) was disputable, precarious and doubtful; in order to intimidate Strangers, and as much as in their Power prevent every one from taking or improving Lots on the Point; this is to give Notice to the Public, that the Subscriber will give Attendance on said Point, and will clear up the Title to every generous and unbiased Mind to be good. Other Means have been made use of to prevent the Settling of Fell's Point, as the Water bad (and better could not be expected) and the Point not healthy, &c. the former has been proved false to a Demonstration, and the latter the Inhabitants in the Course of last Summer can Answer to, how long they may be favour'd with better Health than their Neighbours, Time only can shew. There are several valuable Lots on the Point that have been heretofore subscribed for, which are now free from such Subscription, and will be Sold or Let to the first that offers, by a Power invested in the Executrix.

For Terms apply to JOHN BOND, for
ANNE FELL, Executrix
(w5) of Edward Fell.

The MARYLAND LOTTERY.

IT is thought proper that the Public ſhould be acquainted with the Quality of the Land (lying in Kent County) which make a Part of the Prizes.

It is chiefly uncultivated, abounds with great Plenty of Stave, Plank, white and red Oak, and Ship Timber.

There is alſo a great deal of low flat Land, capable of producing Hemp, and making excellent Meadows; a large Range of flat Land for Cattle, Hogs and other Wood Stock; the Woods producing great Quantities of Acorn Maſts; it lies convenient for the Head of Cheſter and Saſſafras Rivers, and Duck-Creek.

Upon the Whole this Eſtate is capable of producing very great Profit to Perſons who give the leaſt Attention to the Improvement of Land. Kent is the Garden of the Continent, nay, there is not a County in the Dominion of Great-Britain ſuperior to it.
